Editorial

The biennial church fete takes place this month with proceeds to Kingston Church Restoration Fund. Please support this event by providing items for sale, telling your friends and coming along on the day. This is usually a lovely village event so please put it in your diary. Details on how to give to different stalls are in this magazine. I am collecting books, CDs and DVDs and any contributions can be left in the church or I can collect them.

Please send emails to me, Mandy Ray, by the 20th of each month.

Vicar's Letter

Summer

The longer days and (hopefully!) warmer weather of summer mean that this is a wonderful time of year for meeting up with friends or family. When it's cold and dark outside we naturally want to huddle indoors watching TV, and sometimes while we're doing this we forget that us human beings are designed to need and enjoy other people and a wider community. Without them we can find ourselves feeling low, lonely and stuck in a rut.

Now, though, is a chance to make or re-make links with the people around us, to find new friends and to strengthen the relationships we already have. There are lots of opportunities to get outside with other people and do this. Some might enjoy playing sports of different kinds (watching sport on TV doesn't really count!). Or we can make the most of the beautiful countryside we live in and go for walks or bike rides, maybe smiling or saying hello to strangers as we pass. We might enjoy picnics, visiting a zoo or wildlife park. We could take up an evening class, join an interest group or volunteer somewhere, all the while getting to know people who share our interests. There are so many things we can do and a lot of them cost very little or even nothing.

Your local churches are also busy putting on things for people to do over the summer, including fetes, a flower festival in Papworth Everard, an Adrian Snell concert in Elsworth, and holiday clubs for children and the over-65s, to name just a few things. These things are important because we believe that God made us to live in community so that we could share love, support, help and happiness with each other, rather than having to struggle through the hard times alone and having no-one to enjoy the good things with. Jesus himself sought out friends, went to parties and talked about the importance of loving one another. Now, as his followers, we try to follow in his footsteps by offering everyone around us a chance to enjoy themselves, meet the people they live among and be part of a group of people who care about them.

So, this summer, why not come along, have some fun with family or friends and meet new people – there will be posters and publicity for the church's events, or you can ask someone from the church or check on the web (http://www.papworthteamchurches.org/welcome.htm) for details.

From The District Councillor

SCDC Elections 2014

A heart felt THANK YOU to everyone who turned up on 22nd May and supported my re-election. I am pleased to have received such overwhelming support from all parts of the Ward. I will continue to work hard on your behalf, and look forward to our journey over the next four years.

The landscape of local politics in South Cambridgeshire remains the same, with the number of councillors as follows: Conservative 34, Liberal Democrat 13, Independents 9, Labour 1.

Sadly, not so with the European political landscape where your hardworking, award winning LibDem MEP of 15 years, Andrew Duff, was replaced by a UKIP MEP!

SCDC Local Development Plan Update

The draft Local Development Plan was submitted, along with that of Cambridge City, to the Planning Inspector on 28th March 2014. The examination is now expected to take place in October 2014. The StopBAD campaign is continuing, and there are ongoing plans to employ legal representation for the examination.

SCDC Business Workshops

The half-day business workshops started up again in March 2014and are being run by Exemplas on behalf of the council. There's still time to take part. Each workshop costs £10 +VAT, and anyone interested in attending can reserve a place by telephone 0844 346 0755 (Monday to Friday 8.30am to 5.30pm) and pay by credit or debit card. Full details can be found by visiting www.exemplas.com/southcambs

One cabinet is already installed in Toft and a second will be installed in the next few weeks.You can find more information on the Connecting Cambridgeshire My Area pages.

A Kingston 'dynasty'

My mother was picking blackberries along Cranes Lane, while I watched from my pushchair – that is my first memory of Kingston when I was not much more than two years old. As far as I can remember, in those there were very few houses on Cranes Lane; the rest was small fields with high hedges enclosing them.

Our family has a long history of involvement in the village. My great-grandparents ran The Chequers pub on Field Road (now The White House); my grandparents lived at Mills Villa (1 Field Row) where my mother was born; my uncle David and aunt Rose moved into Mills Villa when my mother married and moved to Caldecote and they stayed here until their deaths. Aunt Rose even died in Field Road on her way home from Kingston's 25th jubilee celebrations in 1977. We extended the house and, in 1984, I left my farm manager's position in Kirtling (near Newmarket) and moved back to Kingston with my young family. At one time my sister Ann and her husband John lived at Pryor's Cottage, part of which had been the Post Office before it was moved to Rectory Lane.

I often came over to Kingston from Caldecote on the back seat of my mother's bike to visit uncle David and aunt Rose. Our early family Christmas celebrations here were by paraffin lamp (electricity only came to this house in 1953). We walked their dog, Roy, along the Field Road lane – at that time the ruts from tractors were deeper than I was high. My mother helped out in The Chequers as a young girl and later was one of many employees who picked fruit from the large orchards of Paynes Farm – apples, pears, plums, gooseberries and strawberries. In my youth I helped with the cereal harvest, along with Terry Osborne and many others.

My great-grandparents, grandparents, uncle, aunt and mother are all buried in Kingston churchyard.

park&ride

Cambridgeshire County Council

Parking charges are to be introduced at all Cambridge Park & Ride sites from July 2014

From July 2014 a £1 parking charge will be introduced for anyone to park at each of the five Cambridge Park & Ride sites: Babraham Road, Madingley Road, Milton, Newmarket Road, Trumpington

How much will it cost?

The £1 charge will allow you to park for between 1 and 18 hours. There will be a 1 hour free period to allow drop-offs and pick-ups of bus passengers and also to enable people to pick up purchases from the John Lewis distribution centre based at Trumpington.

How do I pay?

Daily tickets can be purchased from ticket machines outside the main buildings on the sites. There are no barriers and the ticket does not need to be displayed in the vehicle. The system uses cameras that have automatic number plate recognition on entrances and exits. Failure to purchase a ticket after 1 hour will be treated as a parking violation and enforcement action taken by the issuing of a Penalty Charge Notice.

Does it affect concessionary bus pass and blue badge holders?

At present concessionary bus pass holders can still use their pass for free travel on Park & Ride services but they must still pay to park or a penalty Charge Notice will be issued. Blue Badge holders are also required to pay for parking.

Can I park for longer?

Parking for longer than 18 hours will be allowed but the following charges will apply

- Between 18 and 24 hours £10
- Between 24 and 48 hours £20
- Between 48 and 72 hours £30

The maximum permitted stay is 72 hours. The above tickets are available from the ticket machines or online (see below).

Are there discounts for advance purchasing?

Discounts are available for advance purchasing of tickets on-line or via a mobile phone. Discounted prices for advance purchasing are as follows:

- Weekly (up to 7 days) £ 5
- Four weekly £ 18
- Annual £230

Discounted tickets will be available on line from the website listed below. Customers wishing to pay by mobile phone will also need to register first on the same website.

When do I get my bus ticket?

- Park and Ride passengers may pay for the bus service that they require at the same time as they purchase their parking ticket. Or they can get the ticket from the driver but you must have purchased a valid parking ticket first
- National Express passengers must pay for parking at the Park and Ride site and buy a ticket for their journey from the driver or in advance according to National Express rules
