MAY 2011

Newsletter May/June 2011

There are lots of funny (both in the amusing and peculiar sense) ideas of what or who the Holy Spirit – or Holy Ghost in older versions of our Bibles and services – is. Some I have spoken to actually seem to think that God seems to hang about wearing a bed sheet and floating over services, and some people think that the Holy Spirit is a religious version of 'Santa's little helper', who zips around the place helping people do good things.

But when the Bible talks about the Holy Spirit it means God. We talk about God as 'Father, Son and Holy Spirit', not as three different Gods all trying to share a small house in heaven, but because it's the only way our limited human words can describe someone who is bigger than our minds can ever grasp. When the writers of the Bible talked about the Holy Spirit they thought in terms of God being active in people's lives, and the only word they could think to use was 'spirit' – suggesting someone who you couldn't see, but who was still there.

At this time of the Church's year, coming up to Pentecost, we remember that God is still active in people's lives, and that when we are open to God he will actually make a difference in our lives. On the first day of the Church we read, in the book of the Acts of the Apostles, that God inspired people to speak in different languages and to share the excitement of the new life which Jesus offers – this was such an amazing experience for all concerned that three thousand people joined the Church on that one day. The writers described it as the Spirit of God being 'poured out' – that God was at work even though he couldn't be seen.

Today we still believe that God is active in our lives, and on June 12th we will celebrate in our churches the festival of Pentecost, to remind us that God's Spirit, God Himself, is with us in all that we do, in everything we say, in every part of our lives. Jesus described the Spirit as a comforter, a companion, and said that God would inspire those who follow Him to be those that worship and live 'in Spirit and in truth'. But in order for God to make a difference in our lives we have to be open to him, to listen to and follow the teachings of Jesus, and to be willing to change. I believe, and I have seen in my own life and in the lives of others, that God can do great things.

May you know the touch of God's Spirit this Pentecost time and always.

Fiona

Editor's Note

As you will realise I am writing this just before the Easter weekend. I have to admit that I am so looking forward to a few days off, in Wiltshire, in the beautiful weather. I do hope that everyone has some fun over the weekend. Also around the time this will arrive in your letter box we have the Royal Wedding and May Day Bank Holiday. Hopefully the weather will hold good for that weekend as well.

Given that we have such a busy start to the month of May it is perhaps unexpected that we have few events going on during the month. However, we do have a couple of Work Days for which all willing volunteers will be greatly appreciate; first, we have the Playground Work Day on 7 May; then we have the Village Hall Work Day on Saturday 21 May. We really do need as much help as possible on each of these days – and we hope to have fun while working!

You will see from Janet Clear's note that there are vacancies for volunteers for Church Wardens and the Editor of the magazine. It will be great to hear from anyone who comes forward for these roles. These volunteers are the life-blood of our community and play a large role in keeping the community spirit going. In these days when everyone is busy with their own lives, it is great that there are still people able to fit "a little bit more" into their lives.

A date for your diary! Don't forget that the Village Hall Barbeque is being held on Saturday 16 July. Further details will be in the June magazine.

Have a fun month!

Villagers help needed.

The Parochial Church Council has three vacant positions.

2 Churchwardens - Peter Reynolds (our only Churchwarden) has recently resigned from this role. Ideally there should be 2, if you would like to become a Churchwarden or help in any way please contact Peter for information on 262094 or email peterreynolds299@btinternet.com

Magazine Editor – Jill Coleman, who resigned as Editor earlier this year, has kindly continued this role until we can find her replacement. If anyone would like to take on this position, for further information please contact either:-

Jill on 263919 or email coleman117@btinternet.com or Linda Rimmer email lfrimmer@yahoo.co.uk

The PCC would like to thank both Peter and Jill for all their support over the years.

Farewell and Heartfelt Thanks

As many of you know, my last service as Team Vicar in the Papworth Team was held in Kingston on 27 March. It is with great sadness that I leave the people and village of Kingston, who always made me feel so welcome, allowed me to minister among them and gave me a superb and moving send-off. Thank you so much for such an abundance of kindness.

Since I shall be living close by in St Neots, I fully intend to stay in touch and shall always remember you with great fondness.

May Kingston remain such a warm and welcoming community as I have experienced it and may God bless you all.

Parish Council News

ANNUAL MEETING

The Annual Parish Meeting will take place this year on 19 May 2011 at 8.00 pm in the Village Hall. This is a public meeting – not a parish council meeting – to which all residents are invited. All parishes must by law hold such a meeting each year.

This is your meeting! Come along to enjoy a glass of wine, and hear representatives from your Parish Council and other organisations in the village talk about their achievements over the last 12 months. There will also be a general forum at which anybody can ask questions or raise matters of mutual interest for discussion.

Peter Stokes, Parish Clerk

Vandalism

I have had news of vandalism in Bourn and Kingston. A window has been broken in Bourn Church and swastikas have been painted in Kingston. I have no other details at the moment and will let you know more. It could be youngsters with vehicles or on bikes. Please look out for any possible suspects.

Bill Lovell, Neighbourhood Watch Co-Ordinator

ADVANCE NOTICE

Robert Lloyd Parry will perform the final part of his M R James' ghost stories trilogy on Saturday November 19th this year. A date for the diary.

Cambridge Philharmonic Society – Saturday 7 May

1791 was Mozart's last year – and one of his most prolific. On Saturday 7th May, through a series of workshop performances starting at 11am, the Cambridge Philharmonic Society will be performing many of his last works at the Emmanuel Reformed United Church in Trumpington Street.

The Cambridge Philharmonic orchestra and chorus and conductor Timothy Redmond will be joined by leading soloists: Natasha Marsh, Lucy Hall, Eileen Hulse (soprano); Kathryn Mcadam (mezzo soprano); Nicky Spence, Philip Sheffield, Adam Crockett (tenor); Timothy Connor (baritone); Guy Llewellyn (horn) and Cordelia Williams (piano).

Members of the public are invited to come and listen to any or all of the following performances:

1100-1130 La Clemenza di Tito K621, Horn Concerto in D K412
1200-1300 Piano Concerto in Bb K595, Clarinet Concerto in A K622
1400-1700 Die Zauberflöte (The Magic Flute), K620 Concert Performance
1730-1830 Come & Sing rehearsal
1900-2000 Come & Sing performance: Requiem K626

For those who can follow a score, you are invited to join members of the Society for a fee to perform Mozart's requiem.

Every performance is open to the public with donations appreciated. All money raised will help the Society to hold future concerts and develop young talent in Cambridge and beyond.

For more information, please visit the website at: www.cam-phil.org.uk
